

21 February, 2019

LATEST MAGAZINES

Asian Defence
Technology

Asian Airlines &
Aerospace

AERO INDIA '19 "Day 1"

IAF Tejas Mk2 Breaks Cover

Indian development of the Tejas light fighter for the IAF continues and the Aeronautical Development Agency (ADA) is showcasing a model of the proposed IAF Tejas Mk2 'Medium Weight Fighter'. The new aircraft will have a max all up weight of 17.5 tonne and features a new configuration with a compound delta wing with close coupled canard wings.

HAL Makes Naval Utility Helicopter Pitch

Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) is showcasing a mockup of a naval version of the Dhruv light helicopter in response to a Navy requirement for a utility helicopter. The Dhruv Naval Utility Helicopter (NUH) features a folding main rotor and tail boom to meet navy requirements for the helicopter to be based on warships.

New Indian Missile Concepts on Display

Indian state owned defence firm, Bharat

Rafael Makes Strong Start at Aero India

Israeli defence firm, Rafael Advanced

Electronics Limited (BEL), is showcasing a new range of futuristic Indian cruise and precision strike missiles at Aero India. The long-range stand-off Khagantak-225-LW concept weapon is expected to have a range of 180 km and weigh 243 kg.

Defense Systems is displaying a wide range of defence equipment at the ongoing air show and has unveiled a new long range stand-off air-to-surface missile, in addition to placing a US$30 million purchase order for the manufacture...

Russian Helicopters Moves Ahead on Ka-226T

Russian Helicopters Holding Company (a part of State Corporation Rostec) has announced partnerships with Elcom, Valdel Advanced Technologies, Dynamatic Technologies, Integrated Helicopter Services and Bharat Forge, covering assemblies such as fuselage, blades, radiostation and landing gear, at the ongoing air show.

GA-ASI Showcases RPA Capabilities at Aero India

Eager to build on the interest the SeaGuardian and SkyGuardian has generated in India and other countries in the region, General Atomics Aeronautical Systems, Inc. (GA-ASI) is showcasing the capabilities of its Remotely Piloted Aircraft (RPA) at the ongoing Aero India 2019 in Bangalore.

- BrahMos NG for Tejas LCA
- F-16 Becomes F-21 for India
- Airbus Delivers H145 Helicopter to Indian Operator
- AXISCADES Offers Customised Depot Level Maintenance Services